OVERVIEW

Dear Teacher,

Welcome to the TIKI 1* Program, an anti-bullying recess initiative geared for students in grades 2-5. With eight exciting lessons to be taught on a weekly basis, along with engaging audio and visual components, this program trains students to monitor their own words and actions, while learning to use social behaviors that will strengthen friendships.

The class listens to a recording of recess scenarios with common bein adam lachaveiro challenges, and each time, TIKI ("Hatik Sheli"), a cute, friendly 'backpack,' arrives on the scene, providing tools and encouragement to enable the children to make the right decisions. These valuable lessons are reinforced with teaching material, activities, and motivational wisdom cards. Ultimately, the helpful Tools I Keep Inside that are gained through this program enable the students to create a true culture of caring in the classroom and beyond.

Topics that are covered in this program include:

- A. The power of our words
- B. The issur of saying hurtful jokes
- C. The power of a group
- D. The importance of inclusion
- E. The actions that promote inclusion
- F. The actions that prevent ongoing bullying
- G. The power to build others with words
- H. The value of empathy

In addition to this Teacher's Handbook, you should have received the following:

- TIKI Program CD - which plays the weekly scenarios and TIKI theme song
- TIKI Posters - to hang in the classroom
- TIKI Cardholders - for each of your students
- TIKI Wisdom Cards - for each of your students
- TIKI "Make It Personal" Cards - for each of your students
- TIKI Song Sheet - to copy for students
- TIKI Finale DVD - to end the program

Students who've learned this program have been enamored (and impacted!) by TIKI and the true-to-life scenarios depicted in each lesson. We look forward to sharing much nachas with you, as TIKI shares his messages with your students, and they learn to live what they learn!

We are happy to help in any way we can!

For questions or assistance, we can be reached at 732-905-9909 ext 132.

Sincerely, THE TIKI TEAM

The TIKI 1 Program is the first in a 2-part series, but it can be done independently.*

OVERVIEW

Weekly Program Structure:

Our experience shows that the best time to present these lessons is right before recess, as it enables the students to enter the most socially challenging time of the day with the proper tools and mindset.

Monday:

Play the TIKI Scenario of the Week. (A summary of each scenario has also been provided for your convenience.)

- After the scenario is played aloud, conduct a classroom discussion with the provided questions and Torah thoughts, to ensure that its message has been properly understood.

Tuesday:

The class can enjoy a special activity that has been provided to reinforce the lesson of each week.

Wednesday:

Distribute the TIKI Wisdom Cards, designed to serve as a reminder of the lesson learned that week. Each card has a special quote and strategy to empower students in their bein adam lachaveiro and avoidance of bullying, to be reviewed with your class. The cards should be placed in the cardholders provided.

Thursday:

Distribute Make It Personal Cards, designed to encourage the students to apply the lessons to themselves, and to convert the inspiration into action. Once the boys have filled out their cards, they can be displayed on a bulletin board or shared aloud with the class.

PLEASE NOTE: We have structured the program to be implemented on a daily basis for maximum success. However, the daily activities can be merged or skipped to accommodate time/schedule constraints.

A TIKI theme song CD and TIKI posters have been provided to help generate a TIKI ruach throughout the class/school. You can play the song before recess to remind the students how TIKI has taught them to interact with one another.

LESSON 1: "POWER!"

GOAL:

Students will recognize that mean words have the power to really hurt others..

MONDAY

PLAY TIKI SCENARIO #1 : "POWER!"

SUMMARY OF SCENARIO:

Akiva Klaver moves to a new town and joins a new school. He's miserable, because the boys, particularly Chaim, are not friendly to him. TIKI, a friendly backpack, arrives on the scene. He looks at his recess-o-meter and realizes that Akiva is sad and having a hard time adjusting to the social scene at his new school. Akiva tells TIKI how a boy in his new class called him a "shrimp" when he wanted to join the basketball game. TIKI feels like "he's been punched in the stomach" at hearing these words, and then tells Akiva that when he was 'young,' his 'mother' told him, "You've got something inside you more precious than diamonds and more dangerous than poisoned arrows"- words. Akiva agrees, saying that he feels as though he has arrows inside of him. He tells of an incident that happened the day before when he took out his snack; a boy pinched his nose and made fun of his banana. TIKI says that sometimes a person only realizes that what he's doing is hurtful when he is treated that way himself! Akiva thinks TIKI is smart. He explains that there was a boy - Refael from Mexico, in his old school, and he often made fun of him. Now he understands the pain that Refael must have experienced. He thanks TIKI for helping him realize what he'd done wrong to Refael, emphasizing that he will no longer speak this way to anyone. Akiva then thinks of some ideas that he could have done to have made Refael feel accepted. Overall, he's feeling much better after speaking to TIKI.

TIKI then flies over to Chaim to help him understand how Akiva has been feeling. Chaim is reminded of how he felt when his brother once called him a "klutz" for dropping a few dishes. He now realizes how he wronged Akiva, and he apologizes to him, and he then invites him to join the game.

WISDOM:
"I HAVE VALUE!"

Hurtful, painful words are everlasting!

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS:

1. Why is Akiva feeling sad?

He is being made fun of by the boys in his new school.

2. Why is he so hurt when someone says, "Akiva is eating a mashed banana!"?

When the food that one eats is ridiculed, the person himself feels silly and embarrassed.

3. What important lesson about the words we speak does TIKI teach him?

Words are more precious than diamonds and more dangerous than poisoned arrows. We must use them properly to make others feel good and not to c"v cause them pain.

4. How does experiencing hurtful words help us treat others properly?

Sometimes we need to actually be on the receiving end of hurtful words in order to understand the pain that such words can cause the one to whom they're directed.

TUESDAY

ACTIVITY:

Begin with a brief review of yesterday's lesson.

- Place an envelope on each boy's desk with the name of a fellow classmate written on it.
- Tell the boys to take out a blank sheet of paper and cut it into pieces, as per the number of students in the class. On one piece of paper, each boy should then write down two positive qualities about the boy whose name is printed on the envelope, inserting that paper inside when done.
- The envelopes should then be passed around the room so that everyone has a chance to write down two positive qualities about each classmate. When the activity is completed, you may choose to distribute the personalized envelopes to every boy, so each one can see the compliments given by his peers, strengthening his self-esteem.
- Encourage your class regarding the power of just a few words to promote ahavas Yisrael. Help them realize that the kind words which they just wrote regarding their friends can actually remain with the recipients for years to come!

WEDNESDAY

TIKI WISDOM CARD:

Discuss with the class the quote and strategy written on the card.

THURSDAY

MAKE IT PERSONAL CARD:

TORAH THOUGHT

Hashem commands us,
"ולא תונו איש את עמיתו"

(ויקרא כה:יז)

A man shall not cause pain to his fellow. The Gemara explains that this commandment is the issur of ona'as devarim, causing pain with words.

Mean words can cause even more pain than a physical affliction, because when mean words are spoken, the hurt and pain can last for months or even years - and sometimes for a lifetime!
